

camp 2

Sponsored by Arbor Hospice and Ele's Place

Camp Heart 2 Heart is a day-long day camp designed to meet the needs of children, teens (ages 5-17) and families who have experienced the death of a family member or other significant person. The day combines traditional camp experiences with age-specific grief support activities designed to help participants gain coping skills and build friendships with others who have experienced similar losses. The camp is held at Camp Storer in Jackson and the cost is $10.00 per family. The camp is offered through the collaborative efforts of Arbor Hospice and Ele's Place.
